

East Coast Chronicles

Dear Friends and Supporters,

I am excited to share with you the latest updates from my journey across the East Coast, as I strive to make a meaningful impact in the lives of those struggling with life-controlling issues. Your continued support and encouragement have been invaluable to this mission, and I would like to express my sincere gratitude.

As I travel and connect with communities, I am constantly reminded of the power of collective action and the incredible difference we can make together. Over the past month, I have had the privilege of visiting several remarkable churches and meeting new people who are dedicated to fostering hope and driving change.

I am reaching out to invite you to join us on this journey by considering a monthly contribution. Your generosity can help us continue to grow and reach our goal of 100% funding, allowing us to dedicate our full efforts to this cause. Together, we can establish supportive groups within local churches and recruit passionate facilitators who will champion the message of freedom and hope.

Thank you once again for your unwavering support. Please keep me in your prayers as I continue this mission. If you have any questions or would like to get involved, don't hesitate to reach out to me at tracyk@readynow.org.

Thank you!
