

Description

Build Lasting Leadership Through Heart, Character, and Self-Awareness

Unlock the full potential of your leadership with the Finding New Strength Series—a transformative resource designed to help Christian recovery ministry leaders, counselors, pastors, educators, and individuals in recovery cultivate the heart, character, and personal leadership skills essential for enduring success.

In today's world, charismatic leaders often face moral failures or lack self-awareness, which undermines their effectiveness. The Finding New Strength series addresses these challenges by guiding participants to align their actions with their core values and divine design. By focusing on a foundation of strong character and self-awareness, these studies empower leaders to lead with integrity and purpose.

What's Included in the Set:

- Understanding Authority: This study offers a biblically based exploration of leadership and authority. It examines how divine and earthly authority intersect and how submission to God's authority can unlock one's true leadership potential.
- Personal Leadership: Dive deep into personal leadership principles from a biblical perspective. Learn how to align your leadership style with your values and purpose to become a more effective and self-aware leader.
- Discovering Your Strengths: This study helps you uncover and develop the unique strengths God has given you, providing a framework to understand how these strengths align with your divine purpose and enhance your leadership impact.
- Engaging in Healthy Leadership: This study explores key principles of sustainable leadership based on Christ-like values. It urges leaders to balance spiritual, emotional, and physical well-being, build authentic relationships, and create a leadership style that honors God and inspires others to serve with integrity.
- Sharing My Faith: This study equips believers to share their faith with courage and grace, viewing it as a privilege and commission. It provides biblical guidance and practical tools for communicating hope and salvation, trusting the Holy Spirit to lead conversations and transform hearts for God's kingdom.
- Changing Culture: This study calls believers to embrace their role as transformative agents in the world, recognizing that true cultural change flows from an inward transformation empowered by God.

Why This Series Matters:

Starting with a foundation of self-leadership, the first three books empower learners to recognize and embrace their leadership potential and responsibilities. The final three books build on this foundation, delving into the essential role of guiding and caring for others through service and obedience. All together, Finding New Strength offers a thorough pathway for leaders to develop both internally and externally, enhancing their effectiveness and impact.

Order Your Set Today.

Empower yourself and others to build leadership grounded in character and purpose. The Finding New Strength Series is more than just a study—it's a vital tool for those looking to create lasting impact through faith-based leadership. Start your journey to becoming a transformative leader today.